The staff of IVT Network, along with our Editorial Advisory Board, are proud to announce the winners of the 2019 IVT Awards. Nominees are selected by their peers, based on articles and presentations which have been integral to our network throughout the year, with winners receiving the highest feedback ratings from attendees and/or readers.

In celebration of the 25th Annual Validation Week, we will have a week-long salute to this year's winners, highlighting one of our winners each day. Awards will be officially presented to winners on Day 1 of the Validation Week Conference, October 16th in Las Vegas.
