Educate for Data
Governance

Dr Willis Thomas of Akorn Pharmaceuticals reviews his presentation entitled "Educate for Data Governance," originally presented live at two IVT Network global conference in 2015 and in 2016. Dr. Thomas emphasizes the importance for providing data governance education for life sciences.

The presentation addresses the who, what, when where, and how of data governance:

Who - Education Key Stakeholders

What - Identify the Scope of Education

Where - Right size Education Requirements

When - Determine the timing of education

Why - Measure the benefits

How - Use a blended learning approach to support ongoing education

Watch the video he produced with his team, as he demonstrates how to get your team fully prepared to take on data governance in your organization.
