

Journal of Validation Technology: Best of 2019

Jan 28, 2019 12:00 am EST

Whether FDA regulations, EU GMP practices or Japanese GMP guidelines, the resources provided in JVT and GXP publications allow professionals to stay current on existing and emerging regulations, as well as learn from colleagues on best practices and audit expectations. 2019 is gone but not forgotten. We have published a special edition eBook which is a compilation of some of our very best and most thought provoking articles and resources from JVT in 2019.
