

Application of Validation Principles to The Training Quality System. Part 6, Continued Training Verification

Paul L. Pluta

By

Nov 24, 2020 8:00 am EST

INTRODUCTION This paper continues a series of previous discussions (1-5) comprising the application and integration of validation principles to the training quality system. The lifecycle approach to manufacturing process validation and related validation/qualification concepts are proposed for application to training. Approaches described provide organization and structure to a site training program. This discussion addresses the ongoing monitoring of trained employee performance – equivalent to stage 3 of the lifecycle approach to process validation. Previous discussions...

Source URL: <http://www.ivtnetwork.com/article/application-validation-principles-training-quality-system-part-6-continued-training-verifica>