“PQ Forum” provides a mechanism for validation practitioners to share information about Stage 2 Process Qualification PPQ in the validation lifecycle. Information about supporting activities such as design and development, equipment, and analytical validation will also be shared. The information provided should be helpful and practical so as to enable application in actual work situations. Our objective: Useful information. Previous PQ topics discussed in this series include the following: Is it Validated? JVT, V 16, #3, Summer 2010. Validation Equals Confirmation, JVT, V 16,...
