Cliff Campbell received the IVT Chapman Award for 2017 in recognition for his longstanding efforts and contributions to validation. Mr. Campbell is a globally recognized expert in process validation with numerous recognized accomplishments. He and Paula Katz (FDA) published "Process Validation Revisited" which received the JVT "Paper of the Year" award in 2013. More recently he has collaborated with Kevin O'Donnell, Deirdre O'Keeffe (both Irish HPRA), and Kevin Scannell (of Therapure) on discussions and publication addressing assessment of criticality of process parameters...
