

2021 CHAPMAN AWARD NOMINATIONS

ABOUT THE CHAPMAN AWARD

The Kenneth G. Chapman Award recognizes significant contributions in validation excellence. This award is named for the late Kenneth G. Chapman, who was instrumental in developing the guiding principles of many areas of quality assurance, quality systems, and pharmaceutical validation.

Each year IVT accepts nominations for this award. To nominate someone, or yourself, for this award please complete the brief form below. All nominations must be received by Friday, August 27th.

Awards will be presented during the 27th Annual Validation Week on October 19, 2021.
